Overview :

Hyderabad is the City that is known for its Rich Culture and Tradition. Hyderabad owning its own rich history from its inception of Qutub Shahi dynasty to the occupation of Mughal Empire and the ups and down under the Asaf Jahi dynasty. Hyderabad city has become a house for both culture and linguistic of North and South India. Their culture can be seen through visiting these iconic architectural structures in the city. Hyderabad was historically known as a pearl and diamond trading Centre, and it continues to be known as the "City of Pearls". Many of the city's traditional bazaars remain open, including Laad Bazaar, Begum Bazaar and Sultan Bazaar.

'Srisailam' is located in a picturesque environment of Nallamalai Hills, 'Srisailam' the abode of Siva and Sakthi is on the right side of the river Krishna in Kurnool district of Andhra Pradesh. The presiding Deities of this Kshetram God Mallikarjuna Swamy is one of the twelve Jyothirlingas and Goddess Bhramaramba Devi is one of the eighteen Mahasakthis and both are believed to be self-manifested. The unique feature of this Kshetram is the co-existing of Jyothirlingam and Mahasakthi in one Temple complex, which is the rare and only of its kind. In the traditional Hindu mythology, this Kshetram is identified as the Kailasa on the earth and named as ILA - KAILASAM. Besides its mythical antiquity, Srisailam is also having a hoary historical antiquity. Starting from the Satavahanas who were the earliest rulers of Andhradesa, the region around Srisailam appears as a prominent religious centre and it continues to be so into the present times.
